ANZAC DAY AND THE CENTENARY OF BULLECOURT

Its almost that time again - that one day of the year ANZAC DAY. This year the RVRA will march from Collins Street as we did last year, but now forming up on the NW corner of Collins street. Not a major change thankfully so most of will be able work that out. Look for our RVRA banner. We will keep an eye out for you. Dress is suit with medals. We will organise a venue for drinks afterwards so we share some fellowship with a beverage or two.

The Bullecourt Centenary dinner is coming soon. We have invited the Governor of Victoria again as our honoured guest. We will also invite the French Ambassador to Australia and the French Consul to Victoria. It will be another fabulous dinner at the Kelvin Club, and we hope even better than the Pozieres Centenary dinner we had last year. Dress is Mess dress, Dinner suit or Lounge suit with medals, and our ladies and partners can wear an equivalent evening dress. Cost will be $120 per head for a three course meal and drinks with dinner. We will send ticket details as soon as we confirm if its 5 May or 12 May depending on the Governor's availability. Stay tuned

Most of the rest of the month has focussed on progress for the Pipes & Drums mission to Edinburgh for 2018. The fund raising raffle is almost ready for launch with its exciting prizes. Please buy a ticket when the raffle is open. Your help will make this a great success

Video your recollections for the future

The progress on our recollections project has begun. MAJ Neil Leckie volunteered for the first video interview as a "proof of concept". Neil spoke about the origins and history of 22RVR and other things. The video will be available for viewing on the RVRA website soon.

Please let us know if you have something to say that we can record on video. Happy, sad, interesting, factual, or a bloody good yarn. We will take it all and build a library of our stories about who we are and what our service was, and what it means to us.

Please register your interest by send us an email.
